

Who Lives in the City of Mesa?

The City of Mesa boasts an ever-growing, diverse population that represents all ages and education levels.

Figure 3

Growth Over Time (Square Mileage)

As Mesa's population continues to rise, square mileage remains relatively stable.

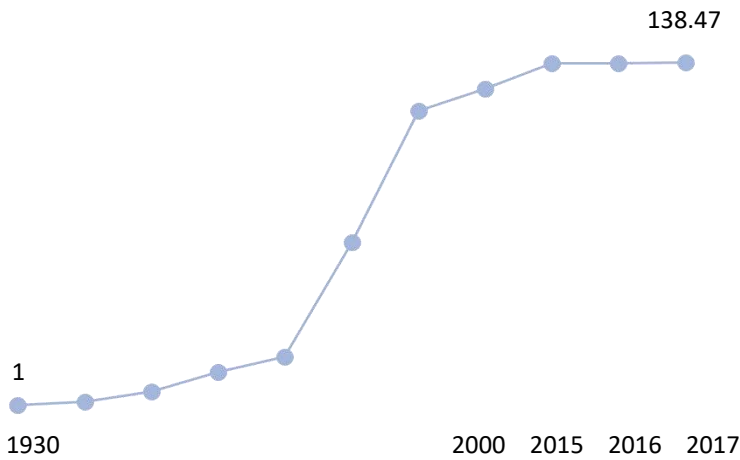

Figure 5

Population Growth

Mesa's population dramatically increased from 1990-2014 and has been steadily increasing ever since.

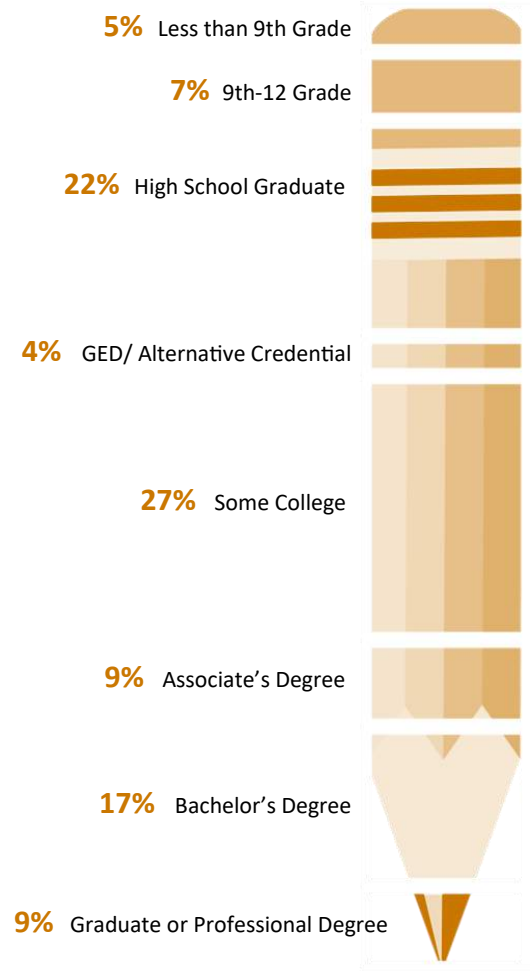

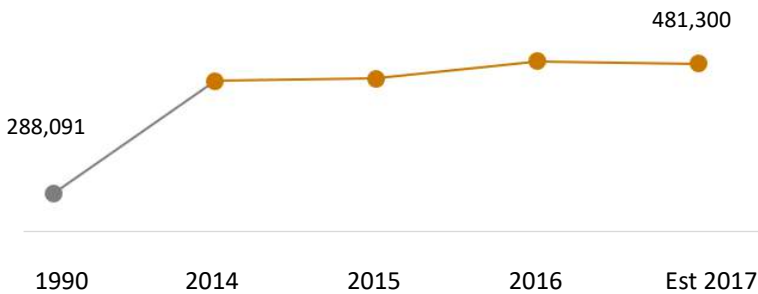

Figure 4

Educational Attainment

The majority of Mesa residents have attended some college, and only 5% of residents have completed less than the 9th grade.

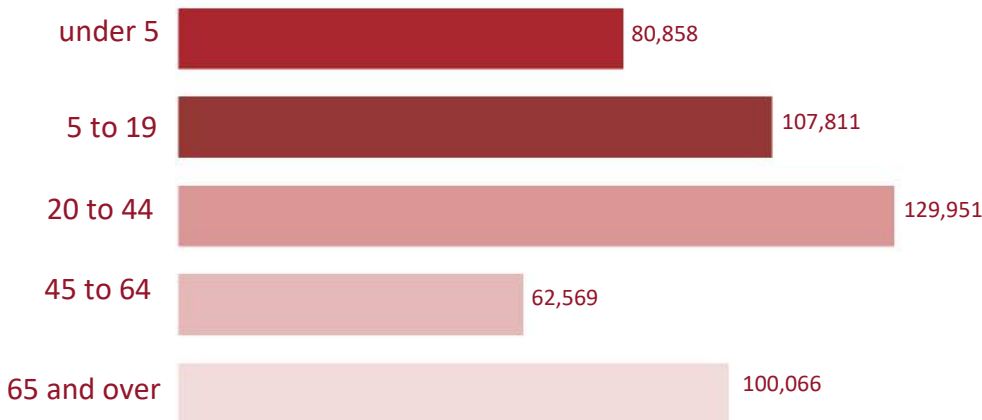

Figure 6

Population by Age (2017)

The total City of Mesa population is estimated to be just over 481,300 in 2017. The number of children under 5 has dramatically increased from 2015-2017.